Breakfast Club Bus
The council has kindly allowed WSS the use of its bus for a trial period. We are going to offer a service of picking up children and bringing them to the Breakfast Club. This service is open to all students. However, the bus is a targeted resource. Essentially you have to meet certain criteria to access the service. Primarily the student has to have an attendance rate lower than 85%. The reason I am targeting those students is clear. Research tells us that if you miss 15% of school you are likely to drop a grade e.g. if you are a C grade student, you are now a D grade student. Also if you are having trouble getting here on time, we will consider picking you up.

If you would like to access this service, please contact Jason at the school and we can discuss attendance rates to see if we can better support attendance at school. My focus, is and always will be student outcomes. If you have any questions about this, please, as always, do not hesitate to contact me.

Year 12 OP Students
This week our two year 12 students studying to achieve OP sat a practise test for the QCS writing task. Both girls worked well and are eagerly awaiting the actual test date later in term 3.

P&C –DESSERT STALL
Thanks to everyone who donated desserts for our stall tonight. Your help is much appreciated and if you are free to lend a hand tonight from 5.00pm, come down the street.

Goodbye Mr Craven
Today we farewell a valued member of our teaching team, Mr Callan Craven. Mr Craven was here at Winton State School completing his teaching internship, in Health and Physical Education as well as science. Through the highs and the lows, Mr Craven has proved to be a reliable, hardworking and enthusiastic teacher. Everyone here at Winton State School would like to wish Mr Craven all the best in the future.
Year 11/12 Art Gallery

On Tuesday the year 11 and 12’s held their Watercolour art exhibition. Guests were able to view the amazing artworks by Tayler Gale, Rachael Nutting and Tristan Coupe. These three students gave the gallery’s visitors personalised tours of the art gallery, whilst explaining the techniques used in each of the artworks. It was an enjoyable night for all who attended.

Athletics Carnival

The Winton State School Athletics Carnival will be held on Wednesday 25th June in Week 10. Remember to dress in your house colours, bring a hat and plenty of water.

Homework Club

Students are able to have a little extra support with their work, with Mr Barrow on Tuesdays at 3:00pm.
